

The Department of Translation Studies of the Faculty of Arts, University of Maribor, cordially invites you to attend the opening of the international exhibition entitled

One Trial – Four Languages: The Pioneers of Interpreting at Nuremberg

The opening will take place on Monday, 7 January 2019 at 4 pm in the Amphitheater lecture hall at the Faculty of Arts, Koroška cesta 160, Maribor.

The honorary sponsor of the exhibition is Professor Zdravko Kačič, Rector of the University of Maribor.

Program:

	Welcome address
16:00	Professor Božidar Kante, Dean, Faculty of Arts
16:20	Professor Zdravko Kačič, Rector, University of Maribor
	Simon Zupan, Assistant Professor, Head of Department of Translation Studies
	Jana Veber, Slovene Association of Conference Interpreters
	Lectures
16:20	Nuremberg Trials as a Turning Point in History , Gorazd Bajc, Associate Professor, Faculty of Arts
17:20	The Impact of the Nuremberg Trials on the Development of International Law , Petra Weingerl, Associate Professor, Faculty of Law
	Interpreting at the Nuremberg Trials , Simon Zupan, Assistant Professor and Dr Aleksandra Nuč, Faculty of Arts
17:20	Reception

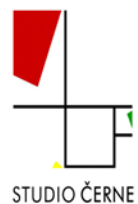

Contact:

Department of Translation Studies
Faculty of Arts
Koroška cesta 160
SI-2000 Maribor
Slovenia

Aleksandra Nuč, aleksandra.nuc@um.si
Simon Zupan, simon.zupan@um.si

Sponsors:

International Association of Conference Interpreters (AIIC)
Slovene Association of Conference Interpreters (ZKTS)
Faculty of Arts, UM
Faculty of Education, UM
Studio Černe d.o.o.

Honorary sponsor: Professor Zdravko Kačič, Rector, University of Maribor